Some things to Note:

- The Clean Foundation will be down on Friday May 13 to start planning the restoration activities for this spring at Sitmuk. Feel free to stop by and say Hello or check in on their restoration plans.
- Thank you to everyone who helped out with the Mother's Day meal and the deliveries.
- There is to be no drugs or alcohol permitted in the Cheticamp houses. Zero tolerance. There are fishers there that want to work and get the job done - not be kept up with partying. If you cannot respect the rules, the industry and the people boarding with you then you will be replaced. Please have a safe season. Your safety is priority.

Notice from Capital and Public Works Department:

We will be flushing the lines for two full days on Monday May 16 and Tuesday May 17, please be sure to stock up on some extra water. We apologize for any inconvenience.

Notice from Social Department:

Power bills should be submitted on time to avoid disconnection.

New social applications are due on May 13.

Sewing classes are open to anyone and are held at the old school on Tuesday's & Wednesday's 6:00pm to 9:00 pm.

Notice from the Boat Harbour Project:

From NS Lands:

An application has been submitted to IAAC requesting an extension to the CEAA 2012 legislated time limit which prescribed that CEAA 2012 environmental assessments were to be completed by August 2022. Based upon our discussions with IAAC, we have asked for a two-year extension to the time limit, so to August 2024.

RE: Notice of Housing Inventory Data Collection – Pictou Landing First Nation

Dear Community Member,

The Confederacy of Mainland Mi'kmaq in collaboration with Pictou Landing First Nation will be in community performing housing condition assessments of the Pictou Landing First Nation housing stock between May 2022 and December 2022.

Greg Smith (CMMNS) will be performing visual condition assessments of community housing units. This data will be used for both short-term and long-term maintenance planning and validating the existing needs for future development.

One week's notice will be provided to residents with a proposed date and time of inspection. If you are unable to accommodate the inspection at the time requested, please contact Albert Denny or Greg Smith at greg.smith@cmmns.com or by phone at (902) 324-2571.

Should you have any questions or want more information on the Housing Condition Assessment program, please feel free to contact Greg Smith at CMM.
