

PIKTUK AKNUTMAQN

Thank you Social

Collen and the Social Department worked Sobeys for months to organize food hampers for the entire community. Hampers consisted of an assortment meat, fruit and veggies. With the price of things these days, community members were so happy to be able to pick up the boxes!

Everything went off perfectly and there were a few boxes left so those were donated to the PLFN food pantry.

Thank you to Colleen and all those who helped the day of to unload the boxes and help with deliveries to community members.

IHPP Update:

The IHPP held a youth black ash basket making 4 day workshop, they learned how to split the log and turn it into strips, how to prepare the strips, and clean them and to weave them. It was an amazing experience!

Amazing work as the youth finished their black ash baskets with the Indigenous Habitat Participation Program. Special thanks to Stephen Jerome Sr. and Heather Condo for coming all the way down here to teach us how to do this! And thank you to Fran Nicholas for feeding us everyday!

This 4-day work-shop taught the youth how to make these amazing baskets starting from full logs! Awesome work everyone and a big thank you to Trinity for organizing it!
